

Barrow Hedges Medium Term Topic Planner (Overview)

Year 5 Autumn 2

Off With Her Head

Art & Design: Tudor inspired art

- To select and record shape, pattern, form, texture.
- To use my sketch book to compare and discuss ideas with others.
- To draw a portrait using observation skills.
- To extend artwork into collage.
- To use fabrics to enhance and embellish portraits.
- To use drawing to develop alternative ideas for the design of a Tudor Rose.
- To create an accurate print design following criteria.

Music: Christmas

In Autumn 2, all children are taught to sing Christmas songs from aural memory and to use their voices expressively with confidence and control, and perform these to an audience.

D&T: Tudor Rose Cross

- To look at a range of samplers and evaluate how they have been made.
- To investigate different types of stitching techniques.
- To design and make a Tudor sampler, copying from my design on paper.
- To evaluate my finished product against the design criteria.

Computing: We are Game Developers

- To plan and storyboard a computer game.
- To create original artwork and sound for a game.
- To create an algorithm for a computer game which uses sequence, selection, repetition and variables.
- To detect and debug errors in the game script.
- To test and improve a game.
- To publish and create instructions for a program.

PHSE and Relationships Education: Getting on and Falling out

- To know there are different types of relationships.
- To know what we mean by anger and be able to describe what makes people angry.
- To know that there are consequences for different behaviour.
-

Anti-bullying:

- To begin to recognise and understand the different types of bullying and the reasons behind it.
- To recognise how bullying makes people feel and how we can help those who are bullying to stop.

RE: Christianity/Christmas

- To identify the church as a traditional building with meaningful symbols.
- To identify the church as a family of people and know the significance of this to Christians.
- To investigate the difference in worship in different Christian communities.
- To research some of the important places around the world for Christianity.
- To identify the difference between a religious Christmas and a secular celebration.

PE:

Indoors: Dance (Tudor dance)

- To be able to learn and perform dances with repetitive structures.
- To be able to compose my own dance in a creative way.
- To understand that dances reflect cultural and historical content.
- To be able to work alongside others, recreating historical dances.
- To work in groups to put together, practise, evaluate and improve composition and quality of a Tudor dance.

Outdoors: Tennis

- To be able to use forehand, backhand and volley.
- To begin to learn the toss to serve overarm to begin play.
- To aim the serve into the opposite side of the court.
- To be able to keep a ball in play within the court lines to produce a rally.
- To be able to move around the court to maintain a rally.
- To be able to run in different directions and stop with control to maintain a rally.
- To begin to learn and use the scoring system in tennis.

History: The Tudors and Local History

- To find out who the Tudors were and when they lived
- To use artefacts to explore early and late Tudor clothing.
- To find out what the Tudors ate, and which foods were available in Tudor Britain.
- To find out about diseases in Tudor Britain and how they were treated.
- To investigate what life was like for Tudor children.
- To test the validity of paintings of Henry VIII to work out what he was really like as a King.
- To explore why Henry VIII broke away from the Roman Catholic church and what impact this had on life in Tudor times.
- To compare the lives of the rich and poor during Tudor Times through studying their possessions.
- To explore and plot on a time line the life of Sir Nicholas Carew.
- To research Tudor crime and punishment and compare to modern day.
- To compare Tudor and modern houses in the local area and how they have changed over time.
- To explore why the Mary Rose is such a famous ship.

Geography: The UK

- To be able to identify and describe key geographical features of the United Kingdom.
- To understand what a county is and identify and locate the counties of the United Kingdom.
- To distinguish between and locate towns and cities in the UK.
- To understand the difference between a hill and a mountain and explore some key facts about the UK's mountains.
- To identify the different seas and oceans which surround the UK's coastline and compare and contrast some UK beaches.
- To be able to identify and explore the major rivers of the UK.
- To understand and describe how London has changed since the Tudor times.

MFL: Food/short phrases/Carol

- To build sentences and express preference about food.
- To practice role-play using greetings and food topics.
- To read and recognize various grammatical structures.
- To sing a French Carol accurately and translate its meaning.

Science:

No focus this half term.