

Nermine Sayed

Nermine is a barrister who works in criminal law. She has prosecuted and defended criminal cases since she was called to the Bar in 2001. Nermine was also appointed a Deputy District Judge in the Magistrates' Court in 2017.

Nermine has served as a co-opted governor since 2015. Her professional background provides excellent experience, relevant to her Safeguarding Link Governor role.

Nermine is passionate that every child should receive a quality education and is proud to be able to support Barrow Hedges in delivering this to the local community.